

Sep 11, 2008

Kelly Doody Blog / Best of Calgary

RUSH is ready

Just because you need an O & G salary to dine there, doesn't mean you can't stop by and at least pop in and pretend you're a VP at Encana.

The coolest new supper spot to hit Calgary in ages, RUSH Restaurant only just opened it's doors and already it's become the talk of the town.

Vintage Group is calling it the jewel in their crown of restaurants – no stretch considering that within its gorgeous glass windows lies world-renowned chef Justin Leboe from Bermuda and Master of Wine sommelier Marnie Harfield formerly of CinCin in Vancouver and CAPO in Calgary.

From small details like 70 underground parking spots for those chilly winter nights and purse holders at every table to take good care of your Gucci, to stand-out features like the up-close-and-personal 'Chef's Table' right in the kitchen, wide open communal table in the luxurious lounge and a wine cellar with 400 bottles worth more than my life, word is the new kid on 9th Avenue is already living up to it's billing as the premiere 'contemporary elegant' restaurant in Calgary.

Featuring contemporary North American' cuisine with a chef's tasting menu, fixed price menus and a la carte signature items, RUSH is ready. Book today by visiting rushrestaurant.com.

